

Thursday morning,

Dear Louise -

Just a little while ago we left you but am wondering how you slept and if you enjoyed dinner Ice-Cream and the the together last night. You probably was quite busy finding napkin ring. ear-rings etc.

When we got here at 12:15 found Aunt Jennie in your place, she and Helen awoke and asked all the questions about you and your surroundings.

We all went down to Finis found the doors locked and the woman at the store said they left for C-dale about 4 P.M. (?) so we all went over to Percy Brown's had a wonderful supper then went up to the Capitol Theatre, certainly had a nice evening at Mr. Schroeder's expense.

Have tried to get this written in time for the mail man but Mr Blakeley came and you know how long he stays so just now the horn blew as I know what happened. He wishes you success and to be remembered to you He knows you will like it.
